

FIRST EDITION MAY 2018

We worship, welcome, witness, teach and serve in the name of Jesus Christ.

FIRST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
21 SOUTH BEDFORD STREET, CARLISLE, PA 17013

Wow! We've been using that word a lot around here lately. The word "wow!" is uttered when we talk about how many people volunteered to help with our capital campaign, how many people attended our kick-off luncheon in March, how many people participated in leadership gatherings, the total of commitments made during the leadership phase, and the excitement and joy of Commitment Sunday, experienced both in worship and during the festive coffee hours after each service.

As of this date we have received commitments and one-time gifts from more than 80 households in the amount of $595,730! Letters are being sent to those who were not able to be with us on Commitment Sunday or were unable to complete their commitment forms at that time. We are also in the process of reaching out "beyond the congregation" to partners in the community who use our building regularly. We are excited about the progress of our campaign so far and confident that the dollar amount committed to our campaign will exceed our goal of $600,000.

At worship on Sunday, June 3, we will be celebrating all the commitments made to our campaign. If you have not yet submitted a form and plan to, please do so by Wednesday, May 30, to have your commitment included in our "celebration" total.

Of course, during all the excitement of our Building to Serve All God's Children capital campaign, the work of the Building for Mission Steering Committee has continued. The committee is meeting regularly with our architects as construction drawings are being developed. Among other current tasks, we are also finalizing the list of contractors whom we will invite to bid and, under the leadership of the Finance Committee, evaluating potential lenders.

Given our current timeline, we anticipate that a special congregation meeting will be scheduled for Sunday, June 24. The agenda of this meeting would include discussion and a vote whether to move forward with construction and, if so, approval of a financing plan for the project.

Please continue to pray for God's guidance, wisdom and blessings during this important and exciting time in the life of our congregation. Please also contact any one of us with questions about the campaign or project.

Thank you for your support!

✠ *Rest eternal grant her, O Lord,
and let light perpetual shine upon her.*

As I write this in mid-April, I look forward to the first warm and sunny weekend forecast this season. Along with warmer weather, May brings our ensemble season to a close for 2017-2018. Chancel Choir will sing anthems through the end of May. There will also be opportunities to participate in pick up choirs and ensembles throughout the summer. Watch the June newsletter for more details!

Here are some other musical happenings in worship for late April and May:

- ♫ May 6 – Cherub Choir
- ♫ May 13 – Youth Choir
- ♫ May 20 – Don Roeder, Trumpet
- ♫ May 27 – David Erickson, Organ
(Thanks to David for playing during my vacation scheduled for May 21-27)

Contact me at any time with questions about any of our musical groups. If you or your child would like to participate, we welcome members at any time. See me in person, or contact me by phone at 717-462-6140 or at musician@firstlutherancarlisle.org.

Thanks!
Andy Hoke

Save the date! Vacation Bible School is only two-and-a-half short months away. The theme this year is “Babylon: Daniel’s Courage in Captivity.” During the week participants will explore Babylon through the eyes of Daniel and his friends and learn that Daniel showed great courage in captivity!

Volunteers are needed! If you are interested in helping with VBS in any way, including with decorations, please contact Tali Martin or Robin Orner, VBS Co-Directors, or call the church office at 717-249-3310. All volunteers 18 years of age and older, who help during the week of VBS, must be approved per our Child Protection Policy.

We’re looking forward to another successful and exciting week at VBS. Please join us!

We are in need of the following items:

- ☺ 2-liter soda bottles (30 needed)
- ☺ King- or twin-size flat sheets in solid colors of red, orange, black and dark blue (will not be returned)

Checks should be made payable to First Lutheran Church with VBS Supplies noted in the memo line. Thanks!

Summer Program for Youth (SPY), an eight-week program of academic and social enrichment for at-risk Carlisle children, is gearing up for its 33rd summer at our downtown neighbor church, St. John’s on the Square. Members of our congregation have served on the SPY board and have supported the program in various ways, as volunteers and contributors, and in May those contributions go twice as far. SPY is generously supported by St. John’s outreach and the United Way, but the remainder comes from individual donors and community organizations. Contributions in any amount will be matched by a pool of board members and generous donors. Pick up a brochure and contribution envelope in the narthex or in the church office. Thank you!

SONG OF CREATION.

Oh, Thou! whose Wisdom fills eternal space!
Whose fiat build all worlds—all worlds erase!
Nor dost despise the meanest worm of dust;
To Thee I bow for wisdom—Thee I trust!
If'er Thou didst with more than mortal sight
Inspire with visions of celestial light,
Didst thoughts sublime expand, to thoughts divine,
Vouchsafe to string this humble harp of mine,
Let whispering spirits o'er its cords inspire,
Our sacred song with pure seraphic fire,
Of things when Time a smiling youth appears,
To span this world, with days, and months, and years,
Of man: how holy, pure, and upright made,
Of woman: how beloved, and how betrayed,
How they were placed in Eden; how expelled;
How murderous Cain in bloody deeds excelled,
How raging floods arise, and how they cease;
Of these we sing, and of celestial Peace,
But silence now prevails before the earth,
And elder Time, had reached their early birth,
Lo! now Creation's natal morn is nigh!
And silence yields to angel choirs on high,
Lo! Chaos! dark, unfathomable gloom,
Dread, misty night, of former worlds the tomb,
Nor shape! nor height! nor depth! nor land! nor shore!
One vast abyss profound! now hovering o'er,
From which this infant globe in being sprung,
And Sun, and Moon, and Stars in circles hung!
Mixed elements met! part to part!—and forth
From whirling mass confused, young embryo Earth!
Loomed slowly up!—uncalloused granite brow!—
Back rolled the waters!—where they're rolling now!

"Let there be light!"—forthwith on radiant wing
The orient beam o'er Erebus didst fling
Its bursting rays!—resplendent! living! light!
And westward darkness fled, and ancient night!
Lo! Vegetation now her floral sceptre wields;
Herbs, fruit, and flowers, garb the glittering fields!
There! Eden's glories gorgeously unfold!
There! wind th' "Four Rivers" o'er bright sands of gold!
And Fish, and Fowl, their fins and wings employ,
In stream and sky, to sport with youthful joy;
And now, in eastern chambers throned! the Sun!
Proclaims the fourth day's crowning work is done.
In majesty is huing the curtailed sky!
And morning's golden gates swift open fly,
To usher forth! in royal! bright array!
With singing birds, the glorious King of Day!
Such sky! and water scenes! what tongue can tell!
So calm, serene, spirit voices swell
On zephyr wings, in airy numbers clear,
From every region, to our listening ear.
Is this a dream? what sylph-like forms I see
In floating footsteps on the wave so free
From sea, sky, fruit, and flower—they sing—they sing
Of spirit realms to which we're hastening,
How sweet to hold communion with the dead!
How sweet to feel bereavement's tears we've shed
Now wiped by unseen hands—to feel our brow
By shades of loved ones fanned!—as mine seems now,
Is there on earth where mortals may aspire
To taste of heaven! forget this clay! and fire!
His soul from inspiration's throne on high
'Tis here! from Eden! pilgrim! come and try

CREATION OF MAN.

Creation still is incomplete: no flowers,
Fruit, fields, beasts, birds, we've seen, and Eden's bowers—
Th' Almighty seems to pause, as if to impress
Our minds with nobler powers of godliness,
"Let us make man!"—Empyrian regions rung
With hallelujah's loud, by angels sung,
When thus informed, a race shall spring, so near
To angels, on this lower earthly sphere,
Fire, water, air, and earth, combine to plan
With flesh, and bone, the sinewy frame of man,
But eyes, hands, organs, felt no mortal strife,
Till "God breathed in his nostrils breath of life!"
Erect! he rose! majestic, God-like, frame
Earth's lord, now giving every beast his name,
How docile, prone, they reverent creep and bow,
How noble he! Dominion throws his brow!
Earth's deep foundations now are final laid,
And birds, and beasts, and lastly, man are made,
And sons of God now shout for joy his praise,
And morning stars their songs together raise,
By all creation earth, saints, seraphs, heaven,
Is one eternal glorious anthem given,
Save one—his Adam—why is he thus mute!
The lord, of earth, and fish, and fowl, and brute,
He was alone!—deep thoughts his bosom heaved,
And silent, desolate, and lone, he grieved,
All creatures in companionship rejoiced,
In mellow accents to each other's voices,
In twain beasts rested, folded in their lairs,
In twain birds nested, sweetly singing pairs,
In twain are all, save him!—each sigh, and moan,
But tells too plainly, he's alone! alone!

A POETIC GEM

This self described poem was inspired (according to the preface) by a painting entitled "Creation and Deluge" and exhibited to great public acclaim at the Odd Fellows Hall in Washington D.C. about February of 1853. Its parts include the CREATION OF MAN (shown here), CREATION OF WOMAN, WARNING (against Satan), TEMPTATION, and the CONSTERNATION OF ADAM. The poem was supposed to be continued, but we only have the first pamphlet. Printed on very thin paper, the text on the opposite side "bleeds" which accounts for the lack of crispness in the reproduction.

All youth in grades 3–12 and their families are invited to our annual year-end picnic and flower-planting project at the church. Meat, rolls and drink will be provided. Please bring your garden tools, gloves, and a dish to share. Please RSVP to Robin in the church office by Wednesday, May 30.

Join us for good food, fellowship and fun!!

Bible Study — The WELCA bible study group will not meet in May. It will meet next on Wednesday, June 6 at 9:30 a.m. in room 16.

Annual Rummage/Bake Sale — Help is needed for the following: Thursday, May 10, from 9 a.m. until about 2 p.m. for setup; Friday, May 11, from 8 a.m.–4 p.m. for the sale, Saturday, May 12, 8 a.m.–1 p.m. for the sale and cleanup. A light lunch will be available all three days for the helpers. Although men are welcome to help at anytime during the sale, they are especially needed on Saturday around 11:30 a.m. to help pack, cleanup and put away tables and racks. Please consider helping with the sale — you are welcome to help as little or as much as you are able. Brown bags are always needed for our $1.00-a-bag sale on Saturday.

We accept all spring and summer items, kitchen items, clothing, shoes, toys, books, glassware, pictures, tools, knick-knacks, bedding (please mark with size), etc. in clean and useable condition. All electrical items should be tested at home prior to donating to the sale. No baby cribs, strollers, swings, car seats or electronics will be accepted.

Items are also needed for our bake sale. Cookies, candies, small loaves of bread, pies, Chex mix, whoopee pies, and fudge all sell well. Baked goods should be brought to the Festal Hall kitchen on Thursday, May 10, or very early Friday morning, May 11. Please mark your containers with your name and the name of the item you are donating. Thanks!

Our next book discussion is scheduled for Sunday, May 20!

We will be gathering at 7 p.m. to discuss “A Man Called Ove”, a work of fiction by Fredrik Backman. All you need to do is buy the book (available from Amazon and other retailers), read it, and show up at Pastor Leber’s house (1010 Dale Place, Carlisle) at the appointed hour. Join us for conversation and refreshments!
